

Name:

Speak Like You Mean It

www.cchsenglish.com

Learning objective: You will connect ideas and rhetorical appeals to persuade an audience.	Points	Date Completed	CLB Sign off
Introduction [Curious]	2
Warm-up: read and annotate "The Rhetorical Triangle" Review syllabus and expectations
Expose [Critically Competent]	3
Watch Amos' sermon from Cold Comfort Farm Discuss rhetorical triangle: logos, ethos, pathos Choose a speech from The History Place list (see module webpage) - Read, annotate, and analyze speech using handout - Discuss speeches - how do the speakers attempt to persuade their audience? Are they successful?
Practice [Creative/Constructive]	2
Speech #1: choose a topic that interests you and decide what you want to say about it - Plan a 2-minute speech (and research as needed) - Write speech, then practice speaking it and time yourself Deliver and evaluate speeches as a group
Create [Constructive/Collaborative]	3
Speech #2: choose another topic and decide what you want to say about it - Plan a 2-minute speech (and research as needed) - Write speech, then practice speaking it and time yourself Deliver and self-evaluate
Reflect [Curious/Connect]	2
Write reflection (2 paragraphs) - see module webpage for prompts Conference with Christine about progress
	12 Points		